WALKER SQUARE COMMUNITY RUMMAGE SALE IS THIS SATURDAY

Milwaukee, WI – For the 4th year in a row, Milwaukee County Supervisor Peggy A. Romo West is co-sponsoring the Walker Square Community Rummage Sale. This year's sale has grown substantially to include more than 40 families.

The event includes a bake sale, local artists and food vendors. The money raised from table rentals will support the Walker Square Farmers Market and the Friends of Walker Square Park for improvements in the park.

"I'm inviting neighbors to come out and shop until they drop to support this good cause," Supervisor Romo West said. "We will have a wide variety of great items."

Walker Square Community Rummage

Saturday, June 16, 2012

9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Walker Square Park, 1031 S. 9th Street, Milwaukee

At the end of the sale, all remaining items will be donated to the Thrifty Ewe Thrift Store where 10% of the proceeds will benefit the 16th Street Community Health Center, Camp Heartland, Kosciuszko Community Center and UMOS, Inc.
